CLASS OF 2013 PROPHECY

It's 2023 and the West Rutland High School class of 2013 is meeting at a local park in Rutland for their ten year reunion. The first to arrive is Carolanne Greene. She is sporting a bedazzled yellow toga while riding her giraffe, Razenolli. She has spent the last ten years working at a giraffe rescue center in the heart of Africa.

Chris Charbonneau and Dennis Phillips show up together in their decked out police cars. They raced all the way here from New York City after being involved in a shootout with a bank robber. Both of the boys are now happily married to their high school sweethearts.

Brandon Groh is next to arrive, pulling up in his navy blue Dodge Challenger. Brandon has spent his post-college years working for the Department of Defense and has recently designed the newest infantry weapon for the armed forces. Brandon was just getting off the phone as he joined the class and informed them that Tyler Bathalon was unable to make it because he is part of the search and rescue team in charge of finding a group of lost hikers in Wyoming.

Best friends Cody VanGuilder and Jacob Eells have made the cross country hike to be at the reunion. Cody is sporting a tan after having spent the past ten years living the dream in California. Jacob, looking better than ever, enters covered in mud. There is even some on the ends of his dreads. He has made millions mining gold in Alaska and plans to start making jewelry using hemp and his gold. He hasn't even hit his thirties yet and he already has plans of retiring and living a relaxed life. Cade Bowen, also a millionaire, and Nick Anagnos roll up in Cade's Bugatti shortly after Jacob and Cody. Both of the boys have been taking it easy.

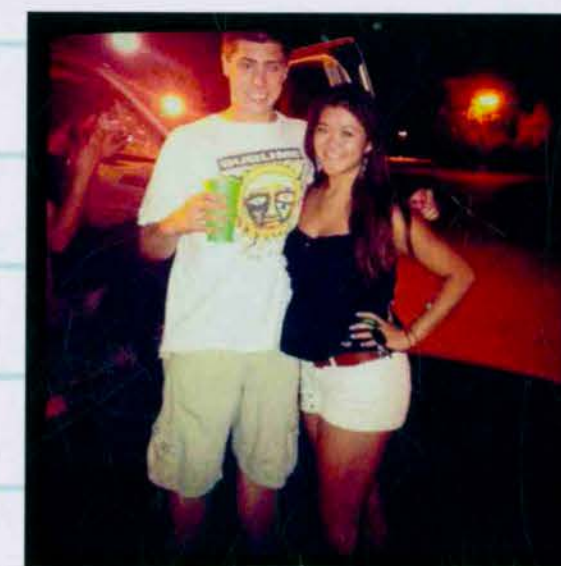

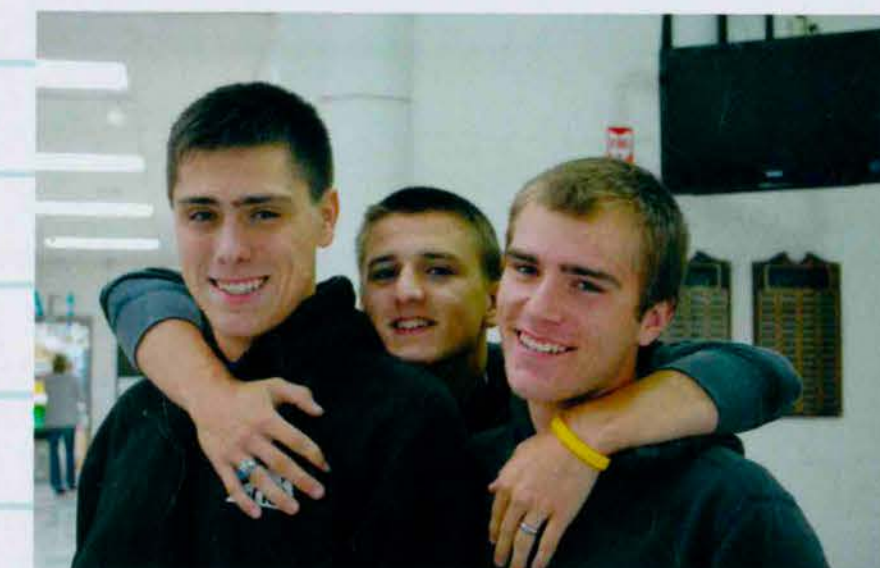

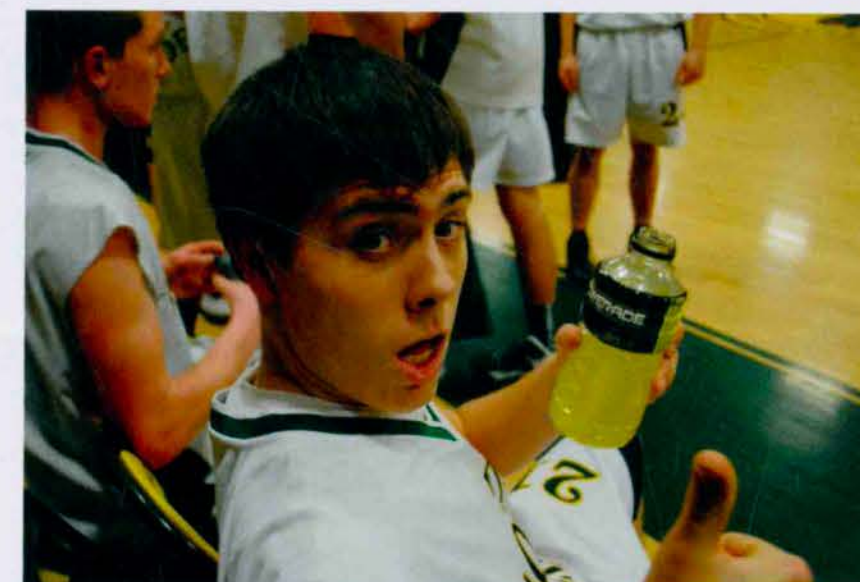

Katie Walczuk is the next to arrive. She has made the journey all the way here from Texas where she is working as a pediatrician at the Texas Children's Hospital. Brad Heir arrives and he has brought food for the entire class because he now spends his free time, when he is not perfecting his bird calls, working at a fast food restaurant.

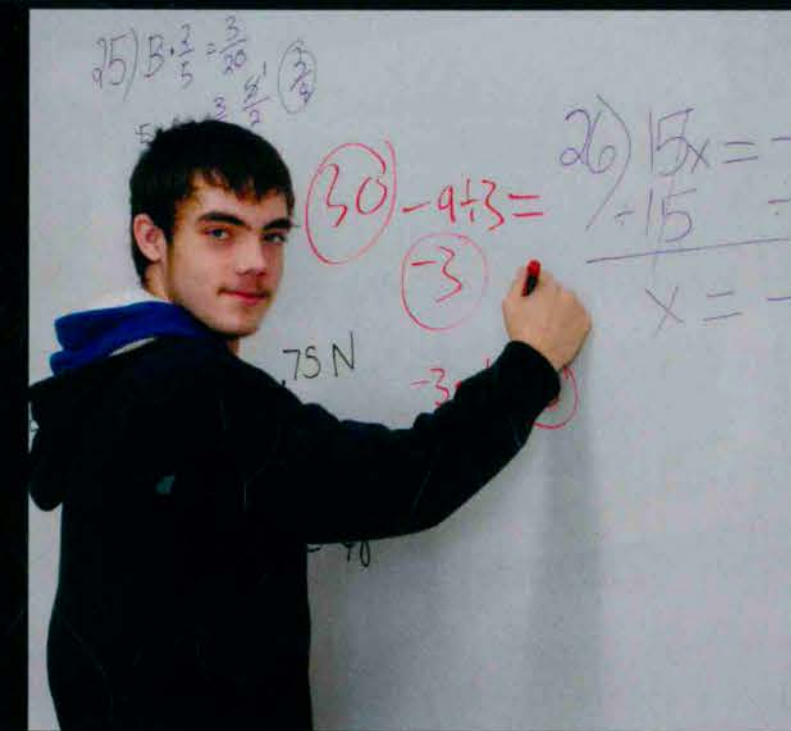

As everyone starts mowing down on burgers and fries, Carolanne receives a text message from Cayla Avellino and Johanna Lee. She let's everyone know that Cayla is unable to make it because she is in the midst of editing her small budget film that will be premiering at the Tribeca Film Festival, and Johanna is busy studying for her bar exam to become a lawyer in New York City after having graduated as a pre-law major from Columbia.

The last two ladies arrive. Haley Dow and Lindsay Burt show up with their husbands in tow. Haley has driven all the way here from North Carolina where she runs a high end salon on the beach. She is happily married and spends most of her free time taking care of her children while attempting to take care of herself. Lindsay is now driving a new Ford F150. She is now a very successful art therapist and has married her high school sweetheart.

From the day you were born, we knew you would become that special young lady, who will do great things in life. You have grown up to be a wonderful and caring person. We are so proud to call you our daughter. You have grown up so fast and we have loved every minute watching you excel at whatever you are doing. You never give up on anything in life, you are persistent, smart, beautiful, loving, kind, and just so easy to love. You strive to do your best at everything, even if it gets tough you never give up until you accomplish what needs to be done. We admire that strength in you and know that you will be the finest doctor or whatever field in medicine you choose. We are going to miss you when you go to college, it's not going to be the same. You should know that when you need us we will be there for you to listen and give you a helping hand. If only we could hold you in our arms forever, but we must let you go to become the most special and beautiful young lady that makes us so proud to call you our daughter. We love you very much and want to say thank you for all the love and joy you have given us.

*Love,

Congratulations, you are about to take a step into the big wild world. I will miss our star gazing nights, there wasn't nearly enough of them. Or hide and go seek games when you were little and Uncle D, was tired ha-ha.

You should be proud of yourself, you have worked hard for everything. I know sometimes things seem unfair, and they are, it's called life. Out in the real world, with no one to save or help you, it is a lesson you already learned, I know it is something that you will rise above while others trip and fall.

The one thing I can tell you, when your sitting up on the stage getting your diploma, ask yourself these two simple questions. Who am I? What do I want in life? At 45, do you get up and say to yourself, yay, I get to go to work, or wake up and say only 25 more years until retirement. I hope that it's the first one.

Finally, I hope you never forget where you came from. Because all the ups, and downs, have made you the person you are today. And no matter where you are. Always know Uncle D loves you, and will have your back.

Love Uncle D

Cayla,

I cannot tell you how proud I am. You are a star. The future is so bright for you. We love you very much. Love, mom.

B

Katie,

We are so proud of all your accomplishments and for all the hard work you have done in school. You will always have a place in both our hearts. We love you a lot. Good luck in college and may your future be the best ever.

Love,
Grandma & Grandpa

Katie,

We are so proud of all your accomplishments and graduating high school. You are an amazing girl who will do great things in the future. We will always be here for you to talk to or vent to when you go to college. We love you a lot and can't wait to here all about you finding your prince charming in college! Best of luck!
